

The Pond Tour Celebrating the 30th Anniversary of

McFarlane Nature Park

Sunday, September 17th 2-6pm

Rain or Shine

Sponsored by

Enjoy a relaxing afternoon of art, music and PONDING!

Information on Fish, Plants, and Pond Habitat will be offered.

Meet and speak with experts.

Donations for McFarlane will be accepted on site or scan this QR code to donate directly from your phone.

We appreciate the participation of:

Lucinda and Pat Whitehead 775 Edgewater Trail Atlanta

Garden designed and installed by James Gibbs, Flowers by Flower Works. Handicapped accessible. "Highlands Wonderland". Shade gardens and a variety of pots. Street parking only.

Michael Zukor 840 Edgewater Drive Atlanta

(not handicapped accessible) Collection of colorful Koi. Beautiful shade plants and unique filtration system with generator. Street parking only.

Judy Winchell 4030 Paper Mill Rd. Marietta

Visit this natural sanctuary of beauty. Largest of the ponds on tour. Wide variety of fish to admire. (parking limited, additional at 4050 or 4010, no parking on Paper Mill)

London and Jerry Andes 4352 Classic Links Ct, Marietta

(parking available at lower Atlanta Country Club parking lot or on Chattahoochee Plantation Dr.) Handicapped accessible. Childhood collection of Koi.

Lynn and Jerry Thompson 541 Rivercliff Trace Marietta

Handcapped accessible. (Street parking limited. Rivercliff Clubhouse parking available.) Variety of goldfish and pond plants on display. Design by Chattahoochee Home & Garden's Hardy Kaplan. Waterfall delight and ever-blooming water lilies.

No restroom facilities will be available on the tour.